

The QUIZMASTER Role

Role Description:

The Quizmaster's job is to test the audience's listening skills. They have to make note of various facts and figures mentioned throughout the meeting and prepare 3-5 questions; the questions should vary in difficulty: 1-2 easy, 1-2 moderately challenging, and 1 stumper.

When the Quizmaster is absent, the Chairperson could take on this role, if time allows it.

At the Meeting:

- When called by the General Evaluator, provide a brief quiz by asking 3 questions at a time and allowing the participants to answer. You should give the correct answer if no one gets it right.
- When finished, return the gavel/control to the General Evaluator.
