

The AH COUNTER Role

Role Description:

The Ah Counter's job is to listen for crutch words (ex. Ah, so, and, ahem, hmm, because) and repetitions throughout the meeting and fill in their report accordingly. By sharing their findings, the Ah Counter helps all participants to watch out for their mistakes and improve their speaking. . When the Ah Counter is absent, the Grammarian could take on this role.

At the Meeting:

- When called by the General Evaluator, give your report.
- Name participants with no/the least clutch words
- Name the participant who had the most clutch words - receiver of the Green Monkey

Skills developed by serving as the Ah-Counter:

- Observation
- Listening
